

A Message From The Team.

Firstly we would like to say hello and welcome all readers to the very first issue of Leicestershire Golfer Magazine. The magazine itself was the result of a brilliant idea and lots and lots of hard work. Currently there are three of us that put the magazine together, myself Richard Woolerton, Jon Webster and PGA Professional Dan Bailey. The aim of the magazine is to give a louder voice to golf in the counties of Leicestershire and Rutland. The magazine will be issued to all 32 courses across the region and will be available to readers free of charge, we hope that the magazine appeals in some way to all golfers whether you be a professional a keen amateur or if you just like to play occasionally for the social side of the game we hope to include something in the magazine that will be of interest to you.

The magazine will feature a course review each month on one of the courses in the region, this will be done by our own team and will hopefully give a fair reflection of the course so you the reader can gain an insight into the course and the club itself. We will also look to bring you the latest news and results from the county scene and we are glad to have the support of the Leicestershire and Rutland Golf Union. As well as the amateur side we will also have regular updates on the professional side of the game in the county and our thanks go out to the Leicestershire and Rutland PGA for supporting us with this. Importantly we also want to give all those club golfers the chance to get their name in lights and with the support of clubs in the county we will print your courses competition results in the magazine as well and if anyone would like details of how to submit results and stories to us then please in the first instance email us at: leicestershiregolfer@yahoo.co.uk.

We will also be including product reviews in the magazine and keeping you informed of any new products that are hitting the market. There will be competitions in the magazine where you can win some great prizes like the free four ball for Kirby Muxloe in this month's issue.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has supported us and helped us put this first issue together.

Invitation to all Golf Clubs.

Leicestershire golfer magazine would like to invite all golf clubs in Leicestershire & Rutland to submit their competition results and fixtures to us. We would like the opportunity to print your fixtures for the month ahead and also print your results for the month just gone.
