

Gene Fulton was CGA club maker of the year in 2008, and now he looks after some of the worlds best female players whilst out on the Ladies European Tour. Gene has recently opened an impressive store/ workshop in South Wigston where golfers (male or female) can go to buy equipment, have clubs altered and get clubs specially fitted by one of the best around. The store is based on Tigers Road in South Wigston and stocks all leading brands such as Miura, Orka and Vega woods and irons. Rife, MLA, Seemore and Yes putters all stocked, as well as all the leading clothing brands such as Green Lamb and Sun Ice as well as Cutter & Buck. This place is well worth a visit and if you are looking to get your equipment altered, repaired or re-gripped then why not go to one of the best in the country to get it done.
